16 (a) TIME FOR FILING COMPLAINT.—Any energy re-

2 sible, and in any event not more than 180 days after 3 such cause of action is filed.

4 (c) APPELLATE REVIEW.—An interlocutory order or 5 final judgment, decree or order of the district court in an 6 energy related action may be reviewed by the U.S. Court
7 of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. The D.C.

22 which the plaintiff does not ultimately prevail, the court
23 shall award to the defendant (including any intervenor-24 defendants), other than the United States, fees and other 25 expenses incurred by that party in connection with the en-

1 ergy related action, unless the court finds that the position
2 of the plaintiff was substantially justified or that special 3 circumstances make an award unjust. Whether or not the 4 position of the plaintiff was substantially justified shall be 5 determined on the basis of the administrative record, as 6 a whole, which is made in the energy related action for 7 which fees and other expenses are sought.

23 this Act; and

(B) seeks judicial review of a final agency action to issue a permit, license, or other form of agency permission allowing:

(i) any person or entity to conduct activities on Indian Land, which activities involve the exploration, development, production or transportation of oil, gas, coal, shale gas, oil shale, geothermal resources, wind or solar resources, underground coal gasification, biomass, or the generation of electricity; or

(4) ULTIMATELY PREVAIL.—The phrase “ultimately prevail” means, in a final enforceable judgment, the court rules in the party’s favor on at least one cause of action which is an underlying rationale

1 for the preliminary injunction, administrative stay,
2 or other relief requested by the party, and does not
3 include circumstances where the final agency action
4 is modified or amended by the issuing agency unless
